"It warms my heart to know we can take care of the adults who come our way. I just love my job, I do," said Misty Hurst, a certified nursing assistant, medication administration technologist, and activities director since 2016.

"My mom was a CNA. I used to go to work with her. In my career (22 years) I've spent 15 years working in a nursing home. I once took time out to operate my own daycare, but I couldn't go long without getting back to caring for senior adults.

"They help us grow, and we get attached to each person. We can take them outside the facility to walk around and enjoy the sunshine, or go to the store, or take an outing in the van.

"We make a monthly calendar of activities such as games, arts and crafts, and getting out in the community. They like for me to read the Marietta Monitor to them and the Busy Senior News.

"We take care of personal hygiene, even showers if needed. It's a joy to work with local families and give them the comfort to know, I'm here and your loved one is safe spending the day."
